1. CHU Shih-ming, head of the Chinese Mission to Japan, is being replaced because of incompetence, failure to obtain aid from SCAP, and use of pro-Communist advisers. He would have been replaced sooner except for his close friendship with Madame CHIANG.
2. HO Shih-li, who will replace CHU, first learned of CHU's Communist affiliations while on a trip to Japan in early January 1950; Hollington TONG and WU Te-chen, in Japan in January and April, made similar reports.

This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the
